Thanks to all for your patience and effort in using a new learning method for the first time. I thought it went well and I was pleased with the results.

This week we'll do a much shorter review session to reinforce what we learned last time.

Soooo..... If those of you who brought cd players/boomboxes/ghetto blasters, etc. would bring them again this week, it'll be a great help.

I've asked the board to look into purchasing some of these once we prove the efficacy of this method. (hey, look it up if you're unsure)

Next we're going to use the same method on three of our newer songs: Raise Your Baton, Mr. Leaderman, Girls Medley and For The Sake of Auld Lang Syne.

I can hardly wait to see how quickly and easily we'll be able to learn a completely NEW song!!!

Yours for a song,

John

Q: How can you tell when a tenor is out of tune?
A: His lips are moving.
Q: What's the difference between a lead and an onion?
A: No one cries when you chop up a lead.
Q: Why did the chicken cross the road?
A: To get away from the baritone section rehearsal.
Q: What did the bass get on his IQ test?
A: Drool.

Save time. Use the new music 'learning method' at home. If you don't know the method, contact your section lead.

Youth in Harmony next weekend. The day involves teaching more than 200 young men to sing 4 songs, barbershop style, along with a show that includes Masters of Harmony, Westminster Chorus and some 'chapter quartets'.

They could use some volunteer 'herders' during the day. See Steve Peacock.

Where else can you get THAT kind of a show for $5 includes FREE parking. Evening performance only 7:30PM,

Saturday, February 20, 2010, Robert B. Moore Theater, Orange Coast College, 2701 Fairview St., Costa Mesa, Calif.

The chapter's post office box is PO Box 1529, Temple City CA 91780. If you have any incoming mail for the chorus let Jay Marcott know; he'll visit the box once a week, or as needed.
